

Brindisi

Port information
Cruise terminal	Cruise Terminal.	Terminal facilities
Currency	The local currency is the Euro. Banks and ATM machines are available in the centre. You can also change money to Euros at reception on deck 4.
Language	The official language is Italian. English is not widely spoken but is often understood by the younger Italians	Tourist information	There are stands and information desk outside the terminal.
Getting around
Taxis	There are normally taxis near the railway station but not many dotted around town. Please ensure that you agree a rate with the taxi driver before making your journey. Most taxis in Italy are metered.	Main highlights	Brindisi, is a beautiful town full of history, art and culture with its remarkable Duomo with its mosaic floor, the Old Town, the Roman Column and the Romanesque Church of San Giovanni al Sepolcro.
Local buses	The terminal is in the city centre, you do not need the bus to visit the town center.
Best way to reach the centre	The best method for getting into the centre is by foot. The landing pier is a short walk to the town center.
Essential Information
Internet access	Internet points are available throughout the town.	Shopping	Nice walk through the centre, where you can find several shops with international brands. There are also jewellery and watch shops, modern sports clothing and shoe shops. There are many shops, cafes, restaurants and a morning fruit market in the centre. All shops with the arrival of the ship, remain open but don't forget Italians love their 'sietta' so some shops might be closed from 1.30pm till 5.30pm.
Nearest bank	You will find various ATM machines and Banks in the town centre..
Nearest pharmacy	Pharmacies are available in the town centre, and are identified by green crosses displayed outside.
Nearest beach	Brindisi, has no free and private beaches. To reach the sea need of a means of transport. At the moment there are no public transports. Free and private beaches are about 5 km from the center (Torre Guaceto, Pantagianni)

There can be last minute changes. Please check Cruise News for the latest information before you go ashore

Your Destination Services team wish you a wonderful day in Brindisi, Italy.