Getting around

Distance to town centre	The city centre is within walking distance from the port terminal, follow the walkway from the terminal building. It's approximately a 15 minute walk.	Main highlights	By far the most impressive building in Cadiz has to be the Cathedral with its dome and huge towers. Cadiz Town Hall is one of the most important buildings in the city. Pick up a guide book from the tourist information office for a guided tour of this interesting building and pay a visit to the beautiful Hospital building where you can see the impressive central patio. Also worth a visit is the church of San Juan .
Taxis	To reach the main town, taxis are not needed as it is so close. However if you want to travel further afield, you will be paying approximately 1 euro per minute.
Local Buses	Local city buses in Cadiz run daily and regularly throughout Old Cadiz and into New Cadiz. All local buses depart from 'Plaza Espana'. You can also find timetables here. Bus number 1 runs from Plaza Espana and into the New Cadiz. The main avenue or 'La Avenida' begins where Old Cadiz ends and stops at the final beach of Cadiz, Cortadura beach. Bus numbers 2 or 7 are also very useful as they run along the coast, stopping at each beach on the way.		You will find several museums in the city; The Municipal History Museum and the Fine Arts Museum offer excellent art collections and are located in the same building. It's also pleasant to walk through some of the pretty squares, such as San Juan de Dios , Mina , Constitución , España and Mentidero , each of which has its own style and monuments, all very unique, as are the different quarters of the centre from El Pópulo to La Viña .
Hop-On Hop-Off	The City Sightseeing Hop-On Hop-Off bus runs from just outside the cruise terminal from 10.00 and at every 15-20 minute intervals. There's 12 stops to get on and off at and the highlights include; Torre Tavira, Cadiz Museum and Cadiz Cathedral. To skip the queues you can get your ticket from Destination Services during their opening hours or once you're on the bus.		Sierra de Grazalema Natural Park is one of Andalucía's most visited parks, renowned for its wildlife, rugged limestone landscape and great hiking territory. Located in a prime spot for viewing the twice-yearly migration of birds between Europe and Africa.
