AT A GLANCE

Nooked into the south coast of Sardinia, Cagliari is the islands capital city and serves up a historical buffet of sights. The cruise terminal is at Molo Rinascita which is around a 15 minute walk from the city centre.

The local authorities don't allow anyone to walk through the port. If you're not on a Marella Cruises excursion, you'll need to get on the complimentary shuttle bus which will take you to the port gates.

The old town of Cagliari is a hilly area so be prepared for a lot of uphill and downhill walking to reach the historical sights.

DON'T MISS OUT ON

Bastione di Saint Remy: A regal neo-classical structure with a monumental staircase and promenade, a great local hangout area. It's one of the symbols of Cagliari and functions as a gateway from the Villanova quarter to the fortifications of Castello.

Roman Amphitheatre of Cagliari: An ancient Roman Amphitheatre dating back to the 1st and 2nd century AD, it's said to be Sardinia's most important public building of the Roman Period.

Shopping: Via Roma runs through the coastline and has a variety of shops dotted through the Marina area, think bookshops, antiques and even a department store. You'll also find an array of souvenir shops peppered around the old town.

Beaches: Poetto Beach is a popular sandy hotspot filled with Sardinian charm just a hop, skip and jump from the port. You can get there in around 15 minutes either by taxi or you could hop on a public bus from Via Roma.

EXCURSION OF THE DAY

Sights to cross off your list here include the 17th-century Porta Cristina and the 14th century Elephant Tower, so named after a small marble elephant that sits on one corner.
