AT A GLANCE

Trip over reminds of the past in ancient Athens, where cultural treasures twinkle back at you at every turn. It's a real gold medal winner of a city.

The cruise terminal is outside the centre of Piraeus. If you fancy staying in Piraeus, there is a sightseeing trolley train that runs every 30 minutes. Walking to centre of Piraeus is around 2km or 20mins.

The metro has easy links to Athens and is around a 30 minutes walk. Or, take the public bus from cruise terminal to the metro.

The Hop-On Hop-Off bus is around €20 from outside the terminal. Official yellow taxis usually run on a metre but arrange a price before heading anywhere.

DON'T MISS OUT ON

The Acropolis: This is the eye catcher of Athens and is one of the most famous sites in the world. The museum is a stones throw from the Parthenon.

Plaka: Developed around the ruins of the Acropolis. This neighbourhood is a maze of streets that leads you to one of the most scenic streets of Athens to pick up all your souvenirs & try some Greek specialities.

The Temple of Athena Nike: Dedicated to the goddess of victory, the Temple is a smaller temple on the Acropolis and was built in 420 BC.

Churches of Piraeus: Dating across the centuries up until the 1940's, Piraeus churches are famed for their stunning architecture and iconic dome structures.

Olympic stadium: Rebuilt in 2004 the stadium holds 32,115 spectators, for the 2004 Summer Olympics.

Votsalakia Beach: Pebbled coast between Mikrolimano and Zea, it is surrounded by many cafeterias and restaurants. Around 4km away.

Shopping: Dotted along the seafront, you can find shops selling local produce, gifts and souvenirs.

EXCURSION OF THE DAY

Athens & The Acropolis: Leave the port of Piraeus behind and head for the captivating city of Athens. You'll pass by the main sights, like Constitution Square, or 'Syntagma Square' as it's also known, the Houses of Parliament, the Neoclassical-style university buildings, the Royal Palace and the Old Olympic Stadium of Athens. The stadium's built entirely of marble and offers up a great view of the Acropolis in the distance. The real highlight of this tour comes next, when you arrive at the foot of the magnificent Acropolis, one of the most famous and photographed ancient monuments in the world. Set off on a walking tour, split into several stages, and let your guide explain its history to you. Once you get to the top, you'll get some free time to wander round, admiring the ancient temples of Athena Nike and the towering Parthenon. Don't forget your cameras for the breathtaking views of the city below.
