

MARELLA CRUISES

Explore Ashore

Santa Marta, Colombia

Port information

Currency

Colombian Peso is the local currency. American Dollars are not readily accepted in town however, some of the tourist locations will possibly accept them, but only small bills and the exchange rate will not be as good as in the bank.

Language

Spanish is the local language. Some shopkeepers and taxi drivers may speak basic English.

Getting around
Distance to town centre	From the ship, you have to take the port shuttle bus to the terminal, and from the terminal, it is a 10- minute walk along the seafront into the town centre.	Main highlights	Santa Marta is the oldest Spanish Colonial city in the continental Americas. Take a relaxed walk along the seafront through the narrow streets of the compact centre.
Taxis	Licensed taxis are available outside of port exit/entrance.		The main sights are the Cathedral, Bolivar Plaza, Santander Plaza, the seafront and
Main highlights	La Quinta de San Pedro Alejandrino is a beautiful and famous sight in the city. Roughly translating to "country estate" in English, this beautiful Quinta is where revolutionary hero Simon Bolivar lived out his final days. The stunning colonial-era estate currently serves as a monument to the liberator of South America, featuring all the pomp and grandeur you would expect to honour such an important historical figure.		the narrow bustling streets of the historic town centre. A few blocks between the beach and the historic district is Parque de los Novios (Lover's Park), the heart of Santa Marta's entertainment area. Restaurants, bars, coffee shops, and bakeries surrour d the plaza. The sounds of salsa, vallenato, and classic rock serenade you as you stroll along the cobblestone streets
			Tayrona National Park is located approx. 90 minutes' drive from the city and is a minutes' drive from the city and is a beautifully preserved coastal eco system.

.....

ourist nformation	There is a tourist information booth at the exit of the port terminal.		Shopping	There is an artisan market by port entrance and there are number of shops selling
Internet access	Wi-Fi zone located in port :	terminal.	PLEASE NOTE: The city is generally very	handicrafts along the sea front and throughout the town. For shopping, you have the historic centre, San Andresito. Ocean Mall Shopping centre, located on Avenida del Ferrocarril with Avenida del Rio, 15 minutes ride in taxi. Best buys in Santa Marta are hammocks, paintings, woven bags & woodcraft.
Nearest beaches	The closest beach is town 10 minute walk from the te	beach , only an approximate erminal.	safe, but as anywhere else be aware of your personal belongings and
Useful Phrases	Hello . Goodbye Yes No Please Thank you How are you? Beer Coffee Toilets Do you speak English? Where is? How much is this?	Hola Adios Si No Por favor Gracias Como estas? Cerveza Café Banos Hablas ingles? Donde esta? Cuanto cuesta esto?	take the usual precautions in not showing lots of cash or jewellery.

Your Destination Services team would like to wish you an enjoyable day in Santa Marta, Colombia.

There can be last minute changes. Please check Cruise News for the latest information before you go ashore.